ABOUT The La Costa Film Festival is bringing Hollywood back to La Costa with an irresistible combination of quality films and exciting special events at a world-class destination. In 2015, over 4,000 fans were offered forty-eight films, with five world premieres, eighteen providing filmmaker Q&A's, three FREE panels with leading film industry experts, and nightly red carpet gala events. Three amazing venues were available for screening, including Center Court on the grounds under the stars at the Omni La Costa Resort & Spa, the ultimate in pampering from Cinépolis Luxury Cinemas, and the spacious Ruby G. Schulman Auditorium. Screenings will be held at the same exciting venues this year. Join in the fun and get your red carpet fix with an all-inclusive Festival pass or by selecting specific screenings and/or events to attend.

The La Costa Film Festival is operated through La Costa Dreams, Inc., a 501(c)(3) a public benefit corporation, Tax ID 46-1779152, with all monetary donations tax deductible to the fullest extent allowed by IRS regulations. La Costa Dreams, Inc. aspires to bring a wider appreciation of the arts through our offered events.
