La Costa Film Festival Presents The "Reel Pitch"

Win a development deal with a Hollywood Studio at #LCFF16

SEPTEMBER 2016, CARLSBAD, CA – The La Costa Film Fest is bringing Hollywood back to La Costa! And they want you to be one of the stars! Do you have a film concept that's a sure winner? How about a short film that could be a full-length feature? Maybe just a raw idea, that has "reel" potential? Now's your chance to make that dream a reality!

Ten contestants will be selected. 5 Minutes each to present their ideas to the 'Reel Pitch' Panel of Studio Executives. A live audience of fans and film lovers will cheer for their favorites. One winner will be chosen and begin their journey to fulfill their dreams!

A panel of independent judges will select 10 finalists from the pool of 5 minute pitches submitted through, www.FilmFreeway.com. There is a required $25 submission fee. Ten finalists are then notified of their selection and their attendance requested for the Festival. They will each present their ideas before a live audience to a panel of judges (curated by Mike Tollin of Mandalay Sports Media) consisting of seasoned producers and film industry executives hungry for new material. Each finalist will have 5 minutes to make their case, followed by up to 3 minutes of Q&A by the judges.

All finalist contestants will each receive an all-access Star pass to this year's Festival. One winner will receive mentoring from one or more of the judges to help refine their pitch, and assist them in finding a potential studio partner to develop their idea. The entry period is now open and will stay open until midnight on August 30, 2016. The Reel Pitch schedule of events include:

(EXTENDED) Submission Deadline : September 15, 2016
